The Close Of The Jubilee Year 2025. His Holiness Pope Leo XIV will officially close the Holy Year on 6th January next, the Feast of the Epiphany. So far the Holy Doors of the Basilicas of St Mary Major's and St John Lateran's have already been closed this weekend. Bishop Alan McGuckin will celebrate the Rite of the Closing of the Jubilee Year with Mass at 3.00pm in St Peter's Cathedral, Belfast on Sunday 4th January 2026. He would like to invite as many as possible, from across the Diocese, to join him for the Mass and some refreshments afterwards in St Comgall's Centre. While the Jubilee Year of Hope will formally close, the task ahead will be to carry its Message of Hope with us into the New Year 2026.

Liturgical "Sign of Peace" remains an integral part of the celebration of the Eucharist and has been reintroduced as a normal practice across the Diocese. The custom in Ireland is a handshake. However, other non-contact forms of the Sign of Peace are also legitimate expressions of the Sign of Peace. The Diocese encourages all to continue to exercise good hygienic practices, particularly over the Christmas season, and if they exhibit flu-like symptoms, they are encouraged to remain at home.

4 CORNERS FESTIVAL. The 4 Corners Festival seeks to inspire people from across Belfast to transform it for the peace and wellbeing of all. It consists of innovative events designed to entice people out of their own 'corners' of the city and into new places where they will encounter new perspectives, new ideas, and new friends. We celebrate our city through music, prayer, storytelling, discussion & more.

Winning Through Uncertainty. Date & Time 7.30pm - Monday 2nd February 2026. Location:
St Comgall's - Ionad Eileen Howell, Divis Street, BT12 4AQ. About This Event: Sam Goodwin is an American entrepreneur, bestselling author and international keynote speaker known for his thought leadership on embracing uncertainty. His book, Saving Sam, recounts his experience of being taken hostage and wrongfully imprisoned in Syria. Sam speaks to audiences worldwide, from large corporate events to intimate leadership retreats, inspiring others to embrace challenges with resilience. Sam will share with us how his journey around the world has shaped him to be the person he is today. Register for this event.

The Journey Toward Reconciliation: Racial Justice Sunday, Date & Time: 7.00pm - Sunday 8th February 2026, Location: St Peter's Cathedral, St Peter's Square North, BT12 4BU. About This Event: Stories of division, violence, and fear dominate our news cycles – both locally and globally. Discriminatory attacks against minorities and immigrants have become far too commonplace in Belfast. It is easy to feel helpless and overwhelmed. What can we do? And what is the church's role in fighting discrimination? Dr Jemar Tisby (PhD) provides tangible steps to take to fight discrimination and protect democracy, both for individuals and for church leaders. Join us on Racial Justice Sunday as we conclude the Four Corners Festival with a call to the onward journey toward love, justice, and peace in our city and beyond. Register for this event

Irish Pilgrim – When The Saints Go Marching

About This Event: Why would a Northern Irish Protestant, raised in a staunchly loyalist community, hitchhike through Catholic Europe on the trail of medieval celtic monks? What role did an Irishman play in the creation of the European Union, and how do we break down walls and bring people together today? Who was Columbanus of Bangor and why are present day librarians from all over the world indebted to him? Why does God not like Zebras, has Murphy's Law anything to do with chaos theory, and why are the Germans the reason Ireland had to wait 1,900 years to get decent roads? Join us on the European travels of sixth-century saint Columbanus (Leinster), and twenty-first century sinner, Barry Sloan (Carrickfergus). With humorous and inspiring stories from his book, sprinkled with a few of his delightfully thought-provoking songs, Barry will show us a God who crosses every border to reach people with love. 7:30 PM - Saturday 7th February 2026, St John's Church, Falls Road, BT12 6EN.
